

Dimitrios Stranis is a First Grade Professor of the Department of Business Administration, a position he holds since the founding of the University.

Degrees and Educational Institutions

1. Degree in the Department of Public Law and Political Sciences of the Law School of the University of Athens.
2. Degree in Law from the Law School of the University of Athens
3. Postgraduate Degree (MSc) in Public Law and Political Science from the Law School of the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki.
4. Doctoral Diploma (PhD) from the Law Department of the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki

Research interests & Teaching subjects

His research and teaching interests are located at the undergraduate level in Public Law and especially in Administrative Law, European Institutional Law, Labor Law, especially in the Public but also in the Private Sector. Additionally in Administrative Science and in particular in Organizational Behavior, Conflict Management and Negotiations. At postgraduate level in Public and in particular Administrative Law, Labor Relations in the Public Sector, European Institutions, European Public Administration and European Policies as well as Public Contracts.

He has taught several Law courses and in particular Public Law and Administrative Science.

Brief description of research-writing work and general elements for its recognition his extensive writing and research work consisting of monographs, publications in authoritative journals, collective volumes and presentations at conferences, which has been widely recognized (with many cross-references), is detected in the above fields of interest,

Academic-professional experience and activity

He has been a permanent Professor of various levels since 1997. His extensive teaching experience begins in 1986 at the previous Institution, and has been acquired both in this and other Institutions, and in particular at the Athens University of Economics and Business (AUEB), as its appointed teacher, for a number of years (2004-2017). He is the Director of the Post-Graduate Studies Program "Public Administration - Public Management" from the year 2017 until today. He has taught in several Master Programs since the year 2001. He is a supervisor of doctoral theses and a member of three-member committees. He was the Director of a statutory Research Laboratory. He is a member of editorial and scientific committees of a significant number of scientific journals. He has been a member of organizational and scientific committees of many conferences and has chaired sessions of important conferences. He has exercised important administrative and academic duties as a Sector Director for a number of years and a member of various Committees of a purely academic and administrative nature. He has been a lawyer in Athens since 1985. He appears before the Supreme Courts and in particular the Council of State, the Court of Auditors and the Supreme Court, for important Public Entities and private entities. He also appears before the Court of Human Rights (ECtHR). It has given rise to many important decisions, many of which are of Supreme Courts, especially of the Council of State, already posted in all important legal databases.