

BRIEF CURRICULUM VITAE OF Professor Maria Tsirintani (Email: martsi@uniwa.gr)

Current academic position

Dr Maria Tsirintani, is full Professor of Health Information Systems and Director of the Social Policy Unit in the Department of Business Administration, Faculty of Administration, Economics and Social Sciences at the University of West Attica, Athens, Greece.

Degrees and Educational Institutions

1. Degree in Health Sciences, sector of Social Medicine, National and Kapodistrian University of Athens
2. Master's Degree in Health Informatics, National and Kapodistrian University of Athens
3. Doctoral Diploma (PhD) in Health Informatics, National and Kapodistrian University of Athens. Her thesis on "Hospital Information System-Care Planning" was innovative as it includes standardization of therapeutic procedures in Cardiology and Cardiac Surgery as well as planning-implementation of diagnoses and care plans.

Courses related to the Postgraduate Program she/he has taught

She has undertaken research and teaching since 1995 at the Athens University of Applied Sciences, the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens, the University of Piraeus, the Athens National School of Public Administration and the University of West Attica (UniWA). Indicatively, as academic supervisor and teacher in the courses: 1. Quality Management in the MSc program in Public Administration/Management and 2. Applied ICT's in Health Care and Welfare Units, in the MSc program in Administration/Management of Health and Welfare Units, Faculty of Business, Economics and Social Sciences, UniWA, Greece. In 2018-2019, she collaborated as member of the educational team with the Department of Primary Level Education of the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens for the MSc program "Informatics in Education", academic supervisor and teacher of the course "Health Information Systems-Patients Record" in the MSc Program «Health Management» of the University of Piraeus (2006-2007), in the educational team of the National School of Public Administration and also professor of Health Informatics at the Military Academy of Athens (1998-2005).

Research interests

Her teaching and research interests focus on the scientific fields: Health Informatics, Quality Management, Digital Health, Telemedicine, Databases and Electronic Patient Records, Health and Welfare Information Management, Management of Biomedical Technology

Academic-professional experience and activity- Brief description of research-writing work and general elements for its recognition

Professor Tsirintani has worked since 1993 mainly as a public health service executive until she was elected in 2007 as Assistant Professor at the Athens University of Applied Sciences. She worked as Head of the Department of Information Systems - Directorate of Informatics (2005-2007) at the 1st Attica Hygiene Region and member of the Telemedicine Group at the Onassis Cardiac Surgery Center of Athens participating in the TALOS-HERMES research programs (1993-2000). She worked as an expert in international and national organizations in her scientific interests: -Republic representative and member of the Register of Assessors in "Information Society SA" 2003-2007, Nursing and Health Informatics Specialist at ICN International Council and member of the European Federation of Medical Informatics Association-EFMIA as well as in research programs of the Social Sector of Business Administration Department, University of West Attica. She is author or co-author of a large number of international and Greek publications in peer-reviewed journals, edited volumes and conference proceedings while she has written an educational textbook and has done the scientific work on two more books on her research interests.

https://scholar.google.com/citations?view_op=list_works&hl=el&authuser=1&hl=el&user=aZAKaUYAAAAJ&pagesize=80&authuser=1